

STATION 106 - SHUSWAP

Pre-Departure Checklist Be Prepared to Deal with the Unexpected – Check this List Weather Forecast – Is it Safe to Head Out on the Water? • check and monitor the marine forecast Sail Plan – File Your Plan Before Heading Out (check the Safe Boating Guide for a sample sail plan) • tell a responsible person where you are going and when you will be back • give them a description of your vessel and communication equipment (e.g. VHF radio) Charts, Compass and Local Hazards – Know Where You Are at all Times • ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area • be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition – Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? • hull and gear – make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves • engine – check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs) • fuel – fill your tank (1/3 to go, 1/3 to return, 1/3 reserve)
Be Prepared to Deal with the Unexpected — Check this List Weather Forecast — Is it Safe to Head Out on the Water? • check and monitor the marine forecast Sail Plan — File Your Plan Before Heading Out (check the Safe Boating Guide for a sample sail plan) • tell a responsible person where you are going and when you will be back • give them a description of your vessel and communication equipment (e.g. VHF radio) Charts, Compass and Local Hazards — Know Where You Are at all Times • ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area • be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition — Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? • hull and gear — make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves • engine — check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs)
Be Prepared to Deal with the Unexpected — Check this List Weather Forecast — Is it Safe to Head Out on the Water? • check and monitor the marine forecast Sail Plan — File Your Plan Before Heading Out (check the Safe Boating Guide for a sample sail plan) • tell a responsible person where you are going and when you will be back • give them a description of your vessel and communication equipment (e.g. VHF radio) Charts, Compass and Local Hazards — Know Where You Are at all Times • ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area • be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition — Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? • hull and gear — make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves • engine — check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs)	ini amanakanka J check and monitor the marine forecast Sail Plan – File Your Plan Before Heading Out (check the Safe Boating Guide for a sample sail plan) tell a responsible person where you are going and when you will be back give them a description of your vessel and communication equipment (e.g. VHF radio) Charts, Compass and Local Hazards – Know Where You Are at all Times ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition – Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? hull and gear – make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves engine – check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs) (check the Safe Boating Guide for a sample sail plan) tell a responsible person where you are going and when you will be back give them a description of your vessel and communication equipment (e.g. VHF radio) Charts, Compass and Local Hazards – Know Where You Are at all Times ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition – Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? hull and gear – make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves engine – check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs)
 Charts, Compass and Local Hazards – Know Where You Are at all Times ensure you have current marine charts of appropriate scale for the area be aware of local hazards, water levels and tides Vessel Condition – Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? hull and gear – make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves engine – check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs)
 Vessel Condition – Should Your Boat Leave the Dock? hull and gear – make sure they are seaworthy, ready for wind and waves engine – check battery, carry tools and spare parts (e.g. spark plugs) load – evenly distribute gear and occupants, do not overload blowers – run for 4 minutes before starting the engine(s), check for airflow
□ Safety Gear – It is Required by Law and Essential for Safety (check the Safe Boating Guide for the gear required for your vessel size) • lifejackets/PFDs • floating heaving line • paddles and/or anchor • fire extinguisher(s) □ Safety Briefing – You Are Legally Responsible for Guests/Crew • indicate location and purpose of safety gear • familiarize guests/crew with vessel layout and operation • describe proper use of communication equipment □ Lifejackets/Personal Flotation Devices – Wear Them! • carry a Canadian approved lifejacket or PFD for everyone on board • make sure they are in good condition (e.g. zippers, buckles, fabric, seams) • check that they are properly sized to fit each person
TC-1001875 Cana

A supplemental chart for Shuswap Lake is the "Shuswap Sun Cruiser" available free at most stores around the lake.