

ROYAL CANADIAN MARINE
SEARCH & RESCUE
Saving Lives on the Water
Station 106 • Shuswap

Some basic information if you wish to volunteer as an active crew member -

You are:

- At least 19 years old and physically fit
- Mature, reliable, and a team player
- Available to be an on-call volunteer
- A good communicator

You will:

- Own and regularly carry personal cell phone
- Acquire the necessary certifications for your crew level
- Remain near the vessels when on a set scheduled rotation
- Attend station meetings and events
- Support your station's community and fundraising activities
- Support the larger RCM-SAR team across the region
- Be committed to excellence in search and rescue service to the public

We provide:

- A training team which will support your goals and membership needs
- Excellent On-Water search and rescue training, including vessel operations
- A wide range of Transport Canada certifications, including:
 - Pleasure Craft Operators Certificate (if not already possessed)
 - Marine Radio Operators Certificate
 - Small Vessel Operator Proficiency (SVOP)
 - Small Domestic Vessel, Basic Safety (SDV-BS)
 - The RCMSAR comprehensive vessel training program, including -
 - Coxswain Leadership
 - Electronic navigation training in a Fast Rescue Craft simulator.
 - Great Personal Protective Equipment, and First Aid/CPR Training
 - An opportunity to work in the 'rewarding' search and rescue realm
 - Sophisticated search and rescue fast response craft
 - Group Liability Insurance Coverage

Saving Lives on the Water